

Due to the recent call for the elimination of all earmarks, a request form for FY2012 has not been released yet. The new House Leadership is expected to announce their final decision on this matter by mid January of 2011, at which time this website will be updated.